

PICTURESQUE EVENTS FOR WOMEN'S CLUBS--SPRING WEDDING DATES

Continued from Preceding Page.

The Women's Democratic Club, gave a dinner on Sunday night at the Hotel Commodore, for Miss Elizabeth Marbury, Miss Harriet May Mills and Mrs. Maurice Connolly, delegates to the national Democratic convention. Gov. and Mrs. Smith were present. The Governor made an address.

The other speakers were Mr. William F. Edwards, Collector of Internal Revenue; Assemblyman Charles Donohue, father of the Lockwood Donohue bill; Comptroller Craig and Mr. Craig, Borough President Connolly, Judge Ellis, Mrs. Eileen, Miss Mary A. Morse of Buffalo and Senator James A. W. Walker.

Under the patronage of Miss John G. Anar, Nicholas F. Brady, Gerald Borden, L. Townsend Borden, Alfred Chapin, John B. Casper, John Beverley Dier, Pitta Duffield, C. Temple Ebneth, Glenville Emmet, Albert Richmond Eley, George Barton, Lytleton Fox, Thomas F. Farrell, Michael Gavin, Harold Henderson, Charles N. Harris, Adeline Lein, Henry James, Graham G. Johnson, De Lancy Kane, David King, Robert L. Livingston, George Leary, Joseph Albert Locke, Charles B. Mitchell, Maurice La Montagne, George Muller, Frederic Nelson, Morgan J. O'Brien, Frank Otis, Edmund Charles Robinson, J. L. Phillips, Dwight Porter Robinson, Alfred Saural, J. Rich Steers, Cornelius Tiers, Henry W. Tatt, Atwood Violett, Schuyler Warren, Rawson Wood, Stuart Pullman West, Robert Wilbur and Walter Wood, Countess De Langier Villaz, Misses Alice Tene, Katherine McCann, Georgine Lein, Elizabeth S. Hamilton, Jeanne Faure and Fanny Hamilton, a concert was given last Sunday afternoon in the ballroom of the Plaza Hotel by the Paulist Choir School Association. The programme was rendered by the Paulist Choir School under the direction of Father Flinn.

On May 10 the Lyceum Societe des Femmes de France a New York, Mrs. Carlo Polleone, president, a few which will be semi-regular in character will be given. Several French societies will take part. The organization held a meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria recently, when the speakers were Mr. Louis Smith, who spoke on "The Spirit of France," and Mr. Anthony Barrow, who spoke on "Violence from an American Point of View."

A supper, dance and musical will be given at the Hotel Commodore on the evening of April 19 by the Hungary Club. Miss Judith Hume will have charge of the musical programme. Reservations can be made through Miss A. L. McNamara, the vice-president, at 263 West 124th street. During the year the club did active war work and at its close it was decided to use the money in the treasury for the comforts of wounded soldiers. At the dinner of the directors and officers, recently held, it was voted to give the money to the United States Army Hospital at Fox Hills, Staten Island, and on Monday last the treasurer, Mrs. James P. McKee, visited the hospital and made the donation to Major Dismore of the Red Cross, who is looking after the welfare of the men.

The next social evening of the Dramatic Art Society, Mr. Alfred E. Henderson, president, will be on April 15, when the solo artist will be Miss Suzanne Zimmerman, who will be accompanied by Miss Helen St. John. The president will give a talk on "The Speaking Voice."

Easter week will see many club meetings and entertainments at the Waldorf-Astoria. Some of the social and luncheon in the Astor Gallery on Easter Monday and on that evening there will be a concert and dance for the work of the Church of St. Gregory the Great. Easter Tuesday brings the concert of the New York Euphony Society at 8 o'clock and earlier in the day a bridge and tea by the Kentucky Society. On Easter Thursday the National Opera Club will have one of its meetings and the Harmonic Philharmonic Society will give a morning musicale in the grand ballroom. The Daughters of the Empire State and the Southern Club will have meetings that day, and Easter Club a morning musicale. There will be another reading by Miss Janet Richards on Friday under the auspices of the United States Daughters of the Great East. St. Vincent's Hospital Social Service, a bazaar for the First Church of Divine Science and a dance by the Zeta Psi Society. Easter Saturday will bring the musical and tea of the New York Euphony Society in the Astor Gallery and meeting of the Woman's Press Club in the assembly room.

The Legislative League, Mrs. Thomas Shack, president, will have a special programme on the afternoon of April 1 at the Waldorf-Astoria. The speaker will be Mr. T. Pitt Lee. His subject will be "Behind the Smoke Screen—Money."

There will be an open forum on legislation, with special attention to the rent profiteering bills. Members and guests are requested to take part in the discussions. The guests of honor will include Senator Ramon P. De Negri, Consul General of Mexico, and Mary Austin, authoress, who has made a special study of Mexico for the Rockefeller Foundation.

The Society of Illinois Women in New York, Mrs. Thomas Shack, president, held a special social day meeting at the Hotel Astor on Thursday, Mrs. J. L. O'Brien was chairman of the day and gave an interesting programme. Miss Louise Stallings, soprano, gave a group of French and American folk songs, with Miss Constance Mills at the piano. The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Cornelia Trow, president of Post Parliament. Her subject was "My Visit to the Court of Marais in Chicago."

Other speakers and their subjects were: Mrs. J. L. O'Brien, "Early Days at Alton and Tremont Death of Lovejoy"; Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, "Work of Navy Club Established in 1917"; Miss Mildred Holland, "The Drama"; Mrs. Janette Boynton, "Western Progressiveness"; Mrs. F. E. Redner, "Cooperation and Federation"; Mrs. Beatrice Gould-Corcoran, "Kindness to Animals"; Mrs. Josephine Smith, "Directors"; and Mrs. Henry Thiel, "Treasures."

The club's president, Mrs. Shack, spoke of the past, present and future of the organization. In memory of our soldiers that is to be placed in Central Park, and advocated Illinois take part among the other States.

The St. Agatha School Endowment Fund drive, which was opened on March 29 at the annual luncheon of the St. Agatha Alumnae Association in the Hotel Astor, gains impetus every day. Being a fund drive, the first of which is arranged for the fund, which will be held soon. St. Agatha is a Protestant Episcopal school for girls.

graduated from Harvard in 1918 and served on the Mexican border with the Eighth Massachusetts Machine Gun Company, and was later commissioned a Second Lieutenant at Camp Lee. During part of the war he served as military staff correspondent for the Boston Herald. The Rev. Dr. W. W. Bollinger, vicar of St. Agnes's Chapel, will officiate at the wedding. The ceremony will be followed by a reception.

Miss Harriet Chipman Parker, daughter of Mrs. E. V. Parker of 1 West Sixty-sixth street, will be married on April 24 to John A. Korschun at the Hotel Gotham. Both served during the war. He was Captain in the Twenty-seventh Division and was overseas for ten months, and she did service with the Red Cross for six months. Miss Parker will have her cousin, Mrs. Edwin Beaman, for her matron of honor and only attendant. Mr. John Morrison of Middletown, N. Y., will be the best man, and Mr. Frank Scott and Mr. Oliver Rockefeller, also of Middletown; Mr. Edwin Beaman of this city and Mr. Raphael Egan of Newburgh will serve as ushers. The Rev. Archibald Bradshaw of Easton, Pa., will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception.

Miss Madeleine Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Jackson of 260 Riverside Drive, will be married to Mr. James L. Quackenbush on April 21 at the Hotel Gotham. Her sister, Miss Hazel Jackson, will be her maid of honor and her other attendants will be Mrs. Herbert Ogden, Mrs. Alfred Louis, Miss Mignon Coughlin and Miss Ruth Rollard. Mr. Sumner Benedict will be the best man, and Dr. Heath, Mr. Milton Porter, Mr. Harold Taylor and Mr. Herbert Ogden the ushers. The Rev. Walter E. Buchanan of the Broadway Presbyterian Church will perform the ceremony. It will be followed by a reception.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

MISS ANNE A. H. RICHARDSON, DAUGHTER OF DR. AND MRS. MADELEY RICHARDSON, ENGAGED TO DR. LAWRENCE K. MCCAFFERTY.

MRS. DONALD ALEXANDER GREEN (MISS HAZEL M. ROGERS) HER HUSBAND IS A LIEUTENANT IN THE UNITED STATES NAVY.

daughter of Mr. Henry D. Hinchman of 2 Pleasant place, will be married to Mr. Eugene Crowell Johnson. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Warren V. H. Filkins. Miss Helen A. Peters of Arlington will be the maid of honor and only attendant for the bride. Mr. Johnson will have his brother, Mr. George H. Johnson, for his best man. Mr. C. G. Smith of Newark and the bride's brother, Mr. Walter H. Hinchman, will serve as ushers. Mrs. Charles McWilliams will be at the organ. Because of mourning in the family there will be no reception. Miss Hinchman belongs to an old Southern family, and is a niece of Mrs. A. Sheldon Ware of this city.

In the Church of the New Jerusalem, 140 West 54th street, on April 12, Miss Emily Payson Call, daughter of the late Edward Payson Call, will be married to Mr. Berford S. Oakley, son of Mr. William J. Moran of Larchmont Manor. Miss Call is a granddaughter of Gen. F. J. Marshall of Denver, a prominent figure in the early history of the West. The wedding will be a simple one and there will be no reception owing to mourning in the family.

Although the exact date has not been set, the wedding of Miss Eugenia M. Terry and Mr. Clifford H. Hendrix will take place early in May. Their engagement has just been announced by her mother, Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

On Easter Wednesday, April 1, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Arlington, N. J., Miss Mary Hazen Higginbotham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West, will be married to Mr. John D. Terry of 200 Central Park West. During the war Miss Terry was engaged in Red Cross work.

MRS. DOUGLAS MAC C. STEWART (MISS EVELYN HITCHCOCK) A RECENT BRIDE. HER HUSBAND IS A LIEUTENANT IN THE UNITED STATES NAVY.

Shelley of the A. E. F. The wedding will take place in a few months.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. William Carter of No. 32 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Florence Elizabeth Carter, to Mr. Hilary Randall Chambers, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Chambers of No. 35 West Seventy-first street and the Hillsides, Lake Mahopac, N. Y. Miss Carter is a graduate of the Spence School and during the war was engaged in active service with the Atlantic Division of the American Red Cross, where she held a responsible position in the military hospital.

Mr. Chambers was graduated from Princeton and during the war was a Lieutenant in the navy in command of the U. S. D. C. 125. He was decorated for gallantry after the battle of Durazzo by the Italian Government. He is a grandson of the late Dr. Talbot Chambers, who was pastor of the Middle Collegiate Church, this city. He is a member of the Princeton Club.

One of the recent engagements of interest in that of Miss Anne Alicia Emmet Richardson to Dr. Lawrence Kinman McCafferty of this city, which has been announced by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Madeley Richardson of 60 Riverside Drive. Miss Richardson served for a year with the Red Cross Motor Corps during the war and Dr. McCafferty was a Lieutenant in the Medical Corps, U. S. A. He was graduated from Johns Hopkins University and is a son of Dr. Lawrence McCafferty of Columbia, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin B. Davis of Andover, Mass., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Davis, to Mr. George Alexander Irwin of this city. Miss Davis was graduated from Abbott Academy, Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Ewell Stout of Short Hills, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mar-Jorie Stout, to Lieut. Charles L. Austin, U. S. N., now stationed at the submarine base, Norfolk, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Luigi Orselli announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Yvonne Orselli, to Mr. Francesco Bertoli, son of the Italian banker, Mr. Orselli is well known in art circles and lives at 216 West Eighty-third street. Miss Orselli's parents will give a dinner party for her to-morrow night at the Jiltmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Thorp of Cambridge, Mass., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Priscilla Alden Thorp, to Mr. Arthur Calver Smith of this city, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Smith of New Haven, Conn. Mr. Smith was graduated from Harvard in 1914, and served overseas until last July as a captain of infantry.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Tuttle of No. 127 Council place, South Orange, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helene Miller Tuttle, to Mr. Donald Fisher Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Fisher Miller. The announcement was made at a luncheon given at the Plaza Hotel.

Formal announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. J. V. M. Fisher of Lambertville, N. J., of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Young Fisher, to Mr. Roger Oosterloek Simon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Simon of Montclair, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders Norvell of No. 30 East Sixtieth street, last week announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary S. Norvell, to Mr. Harold William Jenay of Larchmont. The wedding will take place in June, in St. John's Church, Larchmont, and the ceremony will be followed by a reception at the country home of Miss Norvell's parents.

Under crossed swords Lieut. and Mrs. Donald Alexander Green passed from the improvised altar in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor on Monday night after their marriage by the Rev. Charles Ellis, chaplain of the Brooklyn Navy Yard. The bride was Miss Hazel May Rogers, chairman of the junior cabinet of the New York Mozart Society, of which Mrs. Noble McConnell is president. The bride was held aloft by the best man, Lieut. Harry W. Mead, U. S. N., and the ushers, all naval officers, like the bridegroom. They were Lieut.-Com. H. L. Beach, Lieut. E. H. Bryant, Lieut. James R. Allison, Lieut. W. K. Phillips, Lieut. L. G. Schenck and Lieut. G. W. Bushey.

The bride, who was one of the season's debutantes, wore a gown of white chiffon encrusted with pearls and made with a court train of cloth of silver, over which fell her long tulle veil. Her attendants were all members of the Junior Cabinet and included Miss Vera Van Praagh, who was her maid of honor; Miss Evelyn Eastbrook, Rosalind Taylor, Madeleine Keogh, Helen Stecher, Grace Heaton, Louise Julien, Katherine Scherer, Gertrude Beaton, Bonnie Stevens and Georgiana Alperman. The bride wore a gown of white brocade with satin combined with net caught up with moss, rose buds, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. She had only one attendant, Miss Gladys Atkins, who wore pink tulle and carried a lavender sweet peas. J. P. E. Sutherland was the best man and Commander A. W. Atkins, U. S. N., and Scott Paton were the ushers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. D. Buchanan and was followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's parents. After their wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Pratt will go to Walla Walla, Wash., to live.

Wearing a veil of Brussels lace which had been worn by thirteen other brides, Miss Norma Whitelaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whitelaw of 41 Claremont avenue, was married to Dr. Wallace A. Pratt on Tuesday afternoon in the Broadway Presbyterian Church. The bride wore a gown of white brocade with satin combined with net caught up with moss, rose buds, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. She had only one attendant, Miss Gladys Atkins, who wore pink tulle and carried a lavender sweet peas. J. P. E. Sutherland was the best man and Commander A. W. Atkins, U. S. N., and Scott Paton were the ushers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. D. Buchanan and was followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's parents. After their wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Pratt will go to Walla Walla, Wash., to live.

Wearing a veil of Brussels lace which had been worn by thirteen other brides, Miss Norma Whitelaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whitelaw of 41 Claremont avenue, was married to Dr. Wallace A. Pratt on Tuesday afternoon in the Broadway Presbyterian Church. The bride wore a gown of white brocade with satin combined with net caught up with moss, rose buds, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. She had only one attendant, Miss Gladys Atkins, who wore pink tulle and carried a lavender sweet peas. J. P. E. Sutherland was the best man and Commander A. W. Atkins, U. S. N., and Scott Paton were the ushers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. D. Buchanan and was followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's parents. After their wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Pratt will go to Walla Walla, Wash., to live.

Wearing a veil of Brussels lace which had been worn by thirteen other brides, Miss Norma Whitelaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whitelaw of 41 Claremont avenue, was married to Dr. Wallace A. Pratt on Tuesday afternoon in the Broadway Presbyterian Church. The bride wore a gown of white brocade with satin combined with net caught up with moss, rose buds, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. She had only one attendant, Miss Gladys Atkins, who wore pink tulle and carried a lavender sweet peas. J. P. E. Sutherland was the best man and Commander A. W. Atkins, U. S. N., and Scott Paton were the ushers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. D. Buchanan and was followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's parents. After their wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Pratt will go to Walla Walla, Wash., to live.

Wearing a veil of Brussels lace which had been worn by thirteen other brides, Miss Norma Whitelaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whitelaw of 41 Claremont avenue, was married to Dr. Wallace A. Pratt on Tuesday afternoon in the Broadway Presbyterian Church. The bride wore a gown of white brocade with satin combined with net caught up with moss, rose buds, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. She had only one attendant, Miss Gladys Atkins, who wore pink tulle and carried a lavender sweet peas. J. P. E. Sutherland was the best man and Commander A. W. Atkins, U. S. N., and Scott Paton were the ushers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. D. Buchanan and was followed by a small reception at the home of the bride's parents. After their wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Pratt will go to Walla Walla, Wash., to live.

Wearing a veil of Brussels lace which had been worn by thirteen